Last May, Children’s Hospital declared that Youth Mental Health was in a State of Emergency. Suicide has become the leading cause of death for Colorado’s children. The pandemic has created chronic stress that has interrupted their development. Our kids are mostly back in school ... for now ... but we have not given them adequate resources to catch up, resume their education and excel ... they’re stressed by the continuing mask controversy ... and now Omicron is presenting new challenges. Rotarians can help our youth deal with these challenges.
